

Urge to Merge

I'm always seeking a grand reunion
I've got the urge to merge
It's like my hunger for more communion:
The thirst I cannot purge

I'm always up for a get-together
Down to play any part
In to be in on that whatever
Out to beat any heart

I'm always good for a line of laughter
Not if it is the last
Better to begin one new chapter
Best if it reads real fast
