

Far

Have you ever tried to touch a cloud?
I wouldn't recommend it
Once you try to leave the ground
Your life gets double ended

And if you try to reach a star
Beyond the moon and sun
You'll find you've ventured very far
And wonder why you've run

I'd rather that not be a stop
I'm not that kind of fool
For all who've never reached the top
How else were wonder-full
